Pembroke Pines Realtor® to Be Installed as Secretary of Florida's Largest Professional Association

ORLANDO, Fla., December 2021 – Chuck Bonfiglio, broker-owner of NextHome AAA Realty in Pembroke Pines, will be installed in January as 2022 secretary of Florida Realtors®, the state's largest professional association with more than 200,000 members. "We have a strong leadership team that is deeply committed to supporting homeowners across the state, while helping our members build their businesses," he said.

Looking ahead to 2022, Bonfiglio expects the strong demand will continue for Florida homes and condominiums. "Our state is a preferred location for individuals, couples, families and investors from around the world," said Bonfiglio, who is active in residential brokerage. "However, rising home values create a challenge for first-time buyers."

A leader in regional, state and national real estate associations, Bonfiglio is a member of Broward, Palm Beaches & St Lucie Realtors® (GFLR) and a former president of his local association. He has been a director for Florida Realtors, and served on numerous committees and task forces for both the state association and the National Association of Realtors® in the past decade. Bonfiglio is actively involved in his local Boys and Girls Club and other causes in the community.

As secretary of the state association, Bonfiglio will focus on helping Realtors deliver the highest level of service to their clients and communities through information, advocacy and support programs. "We need to adhere to the highest standards of our profession and demonstrate the value we provide to our customers in every transaction," he said.

Bonfiglio added that Florida's Realtors are dedicated to supporting the state's housing market and protecting private property rights. "Affordable housing is one of our top priorities," he said. "That's one of the ways our members are making a positive impact on their communities."
